

Youth Sobor Participants Participant Rules, Responsibilities and Expectations

1. Youth Sobor participants are expected to conduct themselves as Orthodox Christians living in the image of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. If a participant's behavior is found to be unbefitting of an Orthodox Christian, their participation in the Youth Sobor may be jeopardized.
2. Youth Sobor participants are similar to those of the Regular Sobor in that they represent their parish and are welcomed to share their opinions and ideas in order to help develop the ideas for the future of our Holy Ukrainian Orthodox Church.
3. Youth Sobor participants should adhere to a professional dress code while attending the Youth Sobor Sessions and should have appropriate dress for all Liturgical and Prayer Services. Dress for social/fellowship events may be casual but should also reflect the modesty of an Orthodox Christian. Possible suggestions for females would be; knee length skirts, blouses, dresses(with sleeves). Possible suggestions for males include; dress slacks, dress shirt (polo, button up, collared shirts), tie is optional. Items suggested to leave at home: leggings, spaghetti strap/t-back shirts, shirts with inappropriate words or images.
4. Under no circumstances are Youth Sobor participants to consume or be in possession of illegal drugs/substances, or alcoholic beverages. Youth Sobor participants found with any of these items may be expelled from the Youth Sobor and the proper authorities may be contacted.
5. Youth Sobor participants may not be in possession of any kind of firearms or weapons.
6. Youth Sobor participants must attend and participate in all scheduled Youth Sobor events. With the permission of the attending Chaperone, participants may leave a scheduled event but must sign-out from the event with official Youth Sobor Volunteers and with written permission from the Chaperone.
7. Youth Sobor participants are to inform their Chaperone of their whereabouts at all times.
8. Youth Sobor participants are expected to attend all Liturgical Services.
9. Youth Sobor participants should not meet or gather in one another's hotel rooms – unless otherwise supervised by their chaperones.

We are all coming together as volunteers with Christ in our hearts to do His work for the betterment of our youth and His church. Please keep this in mind when working with one another and the participants of the Youth Sobor. The more we deal lovingly with one another the closer we become to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. We are being given a great opportunity to encourage leadership and vocation within our Church. Please keep this in mind at all times. Your actions and attitude can make a huge difference in how our youth view their church, spiritual fathers and their vocation.
